Takes Shot at Chicken Thief.

Mr. Sidney G. Clay, of near town, has his various outbuildings wired with an electrical apparatus and a little after midnight, Monday the alarm in his bedroom awoke him. On going to the rear of his house he saw a man coming out of his hen house and making for the fence. Mr. Clay fired four times at the fleeing chicken thief and feels certain that he hit him, as blood was found on the yard fence where the man climbed over. He does not know whether the man was black or white.
